

Minimum Wage

Rhode Island Department of Labor and Training (DLT)

Attention Employees - MINIMUM WAGE - Rhode Island

Effective JANUARY 1, 2024 - THIS LAW PROVIDES

HOURLY MINIMUM WAGE FOR ALL EMPLOYEES $14.00

EXCEPT: Full-time students under 19 years of age working in a non-profit religious, educational, librarial or community services organization. $12.60 (90% of Minimum Wage)

Minors 14 and 15 years of age working not more than 24 hours in a week. $10.50 (75% of Minimum Wage)

Employees receiving gratuities (as of Jan. 1, 2017): $3.89

Overtime Pay - At least 1½ times the regular rate of pay for all hours worked over 40 in any one workweek. The law contains exemptions from minimum wage and/or overtime pay requirements for certain occupations or establishments.

Mandatory Nurse Overtime - a hospital may not require certain nurses and certified nurse assistants to work overtime except in an unforeseeable emergency.

Minimum Shift Hours - Employees requested or permitted to report for duty at the beginning of a work shift must be provided with 3 hours work or 3 hours wages. Retail establishment employees must be provided with 4 hours work on Sundays and Holidays.

Child Labor - Employees must be at least 16 years old to work in most nonfarm jobs and 18 to work in nonfarm jobs declared hazardous by the U.S. Secretary of Labor. Youths 14 and 15 may work, with a special permit issued by local school officials, in various jobs outside school hours under certain conditions. Different rules apply to agriculture employment.

Enforcement - DLT may bring criminal action against any employer who pays substandard wages to an employee, and may seek, upon conviction, a penalty up to $500 and/or imprisonment of up to 90 days. Each week an employer fails to pay the applicable minimum wage constitutes a separate violation.

Any employer who hinders or delays the DLT Director or authorized representative in the performance of duties in the enforcement of the law; refuses to admit the Director or said representative to any place of employment; fails to make, keep, and preserve, any records as required; falsifies any such record; refuses to make such record accessible to the Director or said representative upon demand; or refuses to furnish a sworn statement of such record or any other information needed for the proper enforcement of this law, shall be deemed in violation and subject to a fine of up to $500. Each day such violation occurs constitutes a separate offense.

Visit www.dlt.ri.gov or call (401) 462-WAGE (9243) for more information.

DLT-LS-8

REV. 01/2019

NOTICE: This state has its own minimum wage law. Employers are also required to display the federal Employee Rights Under the Fair Labor Standards Act posting, which indicates the federal minimum wage. Where federal and state rates both apply to an employee, the U.S. Department of Labor dictates that the employee is entitled to the higher minimum wage rate.

THIS NOTICE IS FOR INFORMATIONAL PURPOSES ONLY.

Unemployment

Department of Labor and Training (DLT)

You Are Protected under Provisions of the RI EMPLOYMENT SECURITY ACT and the TEMPORARY DISABILITY INSURANCE ACT

UNEMPLOYMENT INSURANCE BENEFITS

If you become totally/partially unemployed:

- File your claim for benefits with the DLT the same week you are unemployed or working reduced hours.
- File your claim online at www.dlt.ri.gov/ul or by telephone at (401) 243-9100. Visit www.dlt.ri.gov/ul for hours of operation. For more information, visit www.dlt.ri.gov/ul or call (401) 243-9100.
- Monday is a high-volume telephone day; you may prefer to file your claim later in the week. You will need your Social Security number and name, address and telephone numbers of your employers for the last two years. If you are not a U.S. citizen, your alien registration number is required.
- To collect unemployment benefits, the law requires that you must:
 - Be unemployed through no fault of your own,
 - Have earned minimum qualifying wages while you were working,
 - Be physically able to work, available for work, and actively seeking work, and
 - Register for work with DLT.

TEMPORARY DISABILITY INSURANCE BENEFITS

Eligible for TDI Benefits - If you have become ill or injured and meet all of the requirements, you may be entitled to receive benefits:

- You are unemployed due to illness, surgery, or injury for a minimum of seven consecutive days or more, and
- You are under the care of an approved Qualified Health Care Provider and
- You have a timely exam: an in-office physical exam the week within the calendar week in which the first day of unemployment due to sickness occurs or within the calendar week prior or subsequent thereto.
- You earned enough qualifying wages during the base period to be monetarily eligible.

Eligible for Temporary Caregiver Insurance Benefits - If you are caring for a seriously ill family member and your need to care for him/her or the required proof of parent child relationship for bonding claims and you are bonding with a newborn child, adopted child or foster child within the first 12 months of parenting; you may be eligible to receive benefits if you meet the following requirements:

- You are unemployed because you are caring for a seriously ill family member or bonding with a child and
- You provide the department with the required medical evidence of the seriously ill family member and you need to care for him/her or the required proof of parent child relationship for bonding claims and
- You earned enough in qualifying wages to be monetarily eligible.

To Apply - Complete a TDI/TCI application. TDI claims must be filed within 90 days of the first week out of work due to illness. The DLT Director may extend this period up to 26 weeks if the individual can show a good medical reason for the delay in filing. TCI claims must be filed within 30 days after the first day of leave is taken for reasons of bonding or caregiving. TDI/TCI application may be obtained online at www.dlt.ri.gov/tci, or call (401) 462-8420, Option #1 to request an application be mailed to you. For more information, visit www.dlt.ri.gov/tci or call (401) 462-8420.

NOTE: You may be entitled to a refund of a portion of your contributions if during the calendar year TDI contributions were deducted from your pay by more than one employer. Information may be obtained regarding a refund by calling (401) 574-8700 or writing to the RI Division of Taxation, Employer Tax Section, One Capitol Hill, Suite 36, Providence, RI 02908-5829.

Whistleblowers

CHAPTER 28-50

The Rhode Island Whistleblowers' Protection Act

(5) "Supervisor" means any individual to whom an employer has given the authority to direct and control the work performance of the affected employee or any individual who has the authority to take corrective action regarding the violation of a law, rule, or regulation about which the employee complains.

§ 28-50-3. Protection. - An employer shall not discharge, threaten, or otherwise discriminate against an employee regarding the employee's compensation, terms, conditions, location, or privileges of employment nor shall an employer report or threaten to report an employee's immigration status to Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) or any other immigration agency or law enforcement agency including local and state police:

- Because the employee, or a person acting on behalf of the employee, reports or is about to report to a public body, verbally or in writing, a violation that the employee knows or reasonably believes has occurred or is about to occur, of a law or regulation or rule promulgated under the law of this state, a political subdivision of this state, or the United States, unless the employee knows or has reason to know that the report is false; or
- Because an employee is requested by a public body to participate in an investigation, hearing, or inquiry held by that public body, or a court action; or
- Because an employee refuses to violate or assist in violating federal, state, or local law, rule, or regulation; or
- Because the employee reports verbally or in writing to the employer or to the employer's supervisor or violation, which the employee knows or reasonably believes has occurred or is about to occur, of a law or regulation or rule promulgated under the laws of this state, a political subdivision of this state, or the United States, unless the employee knows or has reason to know that the report is false. Provided, that if the report is verbally made, the employee must establish by clear and convincing evidence that the report was made.

§ 28-50-4. Relief and damages. - (a) A person who alleges a violation of this act may bring a civil action for appropriate injunctive relief, or treble damages, or both within three (3) years after the occurrence of the alleged violation of this chapter.

§ 28-50-1. Short title. - This chapter may be cited as the "Rhode Island Whistleblowers' Protection Act."

§ 28-50-2. Definitions. - As used in this chapter:

- "Employee" means a person employed by an employer, and shall include, but not be limited to: at-will employees, contract employees, applicants, prospective employees, and independent contractors.
- "Employer" means any person, partnership, association, sole proprietorship, corporation or other business entity, including any department, agency, commission, committee, board, council, bureau, or authority or any subdivision thereof in state or municipal government. One shall employ another if services are performed for wages or under any contract of hire, written or oral, express or implied.
- "Person" means an individual, sole proprietorship, partnership, corporation, association, or any other legal entity.
- "Public body" means all of the following:
 - A state officer, employee, agency, department, division, bureau, board, commission, council, authority, or other body in the executive branch of state government;
 - An agency, board, commission, council, member, or employee of the legislative branch of state government;
 - A county, city, town, or regional governing body, a council, school district, or a board, department, commission, agency, or any member or employee of that body;
 - Any other body that is created by state or local authority or that is primarily funded by or through state or local authority, or any member or employee of that body;
 - A law enforcement agency or any member or employee of a law enforcement agency;
 - The judiciary and any member or employee of the judiciary;
 - Any federal agency.

Sexual Harassment

Commission for Human Rights

Sexual Harassment is Against the Law

Sexual harassment is a form of discrimination that occurs when an individual makes unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors and/or other verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature against his or her wishes.

The harasser can be

- a supervisor
- an agent of the employer
- a supervisor in another area
- a co-worker
- a non-employee
- the same sex as the victim

Sexual harassment occurs when submission to or rejection of this conduct explicitly or implicitly affects an individual's employment, unreasonably interferes with an individual's work performance or creates an intimidating, hostile, or offensive work environment.

Sexual harassment is a violation of state and federal laws.

The prohibition against sexual harassment does not only apply to employers. It also applies to labor organizations, employment agencies, and to individuals who aid and abet an unlawful employment practice.

Discrimination

Commission for Human Rights

Discrimination is Illegal

State and Federal laws prohibit harassment and discrimination in hiring, terms and conditions, promotion, discharge, salary, benefits, and other aspects of employment based on race, color, religion, ancestral origin, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, physical or mental disability or age (over 40).

*State only

State law also prohibits employers from asking applicants about arrest records, and makes it unlawful to ask about convictions until after a first interview (with certain exceptions).

You have the right to a workplace free of harassment and discrimination.

WE ARE AN EQUAL OPPORTUNITY EMPLOYER

Leave

Department of Labor and Training (DLT)

RHODE ISLAND PARENTAL AND FAMILY MEDICAL LEAVE ACT

Employers with 50 or more employees must grant an unpaid leave of absence upon the request of an eligible employee, for 13 consecutive weeks in any two calendar years, under certain conditions.

Employees are Eligible to apply for leave if they work full-time, an average of 30 hours or more per week and have been employed continuously for at least 12 months.

Purpose of Leave - Under the Act, the leave must be for one or more of the following reasons:

- Birth of a child of an employee.
- Placement of a child 16 years of age or less with an employee in connection with the adoption of such child by the employee.
- "Serious illness" of the employee or the employee's parent, spouse, child, mother-in-law, or father-in-law. (Serious illness is defined to mean a disabling physical or mental illness, injury, impairment or condition that involves in-patient care in a hospital, nursing home, hospice or out-patient care requiring continuing treatment or supervision by a health care provider).

Requests for Leave - To be entitled to the leave, the employee must give at least 30 days notice of the intended date upon which the requested leave is to begin and end, unless prevented by medical emergency from doing so. Employees may be requested to provide written certification from the physician of the person who is the reason for the leave request, which certification shall specify the probable duration of the requested leave.

School Involvement Leave - An employee who has been employed for 12 consecutive months is entitled to 10 hours of leave during any 12-month period to attend school conferences or other school-related activities for a child of whom the employee is the parent, foster parent, or guardian. A notice of 24 hours prior to the leave must be given to the employer by the employee. The leave is not required to be paid; however, an employee may substitute any accrued paid vacation leave or other appropriate paid leave.

Use of Sick Leave by Adoptive Parent - Any employer who allows sick time or sick leave of an employee to be used after the birth of a child shall allow the same time to be used for the placement of a child 16 years of age or less with an employee in connection with the adoption of the child by the employee.

Continuation of Health Benefits - Prior to the commencement of leave, the employee must pay his employer a sum equal to the premium required to maintain the employee's health benefits in force during the period of leave, which sum is required to be returned to the employee within 10 days following return to work.

Return from Leave - Employees who are granted leave under the Act are entitled to be restored to the position held when the leave commenced, or to a position with equivalent seniority, status, employment benefits, pay and other terms and conditions of employment, including all fringe benefits and service credits that the employee had been entitled to at the commencement of the leave.

Prohibited Acts - It is unlawful for an employer to interfere with, restrain or deny employees the rights provided under the Act. Any discrimination or disciplinary action taken against an employee for exercising these rights under the Act, or for opposing any practice made unlawful by the Act, is also prohibited.

Enforcement - Alleged violations of the Act may be complained of (1) in a civil action brought by an employee, (2) by a complaint filed with the DLT Director. Civil penalties are provided for violations of the Act or any order issued by the Director of Labor and Training.

§ 28-50-5. Reinstatement. - A court, in rendering a judgment in an action brought under this act, shall order, as the court considers appropriate, reinstatement of the employee, the payment of back wages, full reinstatement of fringe benefits and seniority rights, actual damages, or any combination of these remedies. A court may also award the complainant all or a portion of the costs of litigation, including attorneys' fees if the court determines that the award is appropriate.

§ 28-50-6. Collective bargaining. - This chapter shall not be construed to diminish or impair the rights of a person under any collective bargaining agreement.

§ 28-50-7. Exemption. - This chapter shall not be construed to require an employer to compensate an employee for participation in an investigation, hearing or inquiry held by a public body in accordance with § 28-50-3.

§ 28-50-8. Notices posted. - An employer shall post notices and use other appropriate means to keep his or her employees informed of their protections and obligations under this chapter, including posting in prominent locations in all languages known to be spoken by employees.

§ 28-50-9. Severability. - If any provision of this chapter or its application to any person or circumstances is held invalid or unconstitutional, the invalidity or unconstitutionality shall not affect other provisions or applications of this act which can be given effect without the invalid or unconstitutional provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this chapter are declared to be severable.

Pregnancy Discrimination

NOTICE OF RIGHT TO BE FREE FROM DISCRIMINATION BECAUSE OF PREGNANCY, CHILDBIRTH AND RELATED CONDITIONS

Commission for Human Rights

State law protects employees and applicants from discrimination based on pregnancy, childbirth and related conditions. Federal law provides similar protections.

Employees and applicants have the right under state law to request a reasonable accommodation for conditions related to pregnancy, childbirth and related conditions such as the need to express breast milk for a nursing child. This workplace may not:

- refuse to grant you the reasonable accommodation unless it would create an undue hardship on this employer's enterprise, business or program;
- require you to take a leave if another reasonable accommodation can be granted; or
- deny you employment opportunities based on a refusal to provide a reasonable accommodation.

If you want to request a reasonable accommodation, or if you have been discriminated against based on pregnancy, childbirth or related condition, please contact one of the following staff members:

Pay Equity Act

DLT RHODE ISLAND

STATE OF RHODE ISLAND HOPE

RHODE ISLAND DEPARTMENT OF LABOR AND TRAINING (DLT)

Notice to All Employees - Information Employers Must Post

Pay Equity Act

Pay Differentials for Comparable Work

Pursuant to Rhode Island General Law § 28-6-18, it is unlawful for an employer to pay a differential wage based on race, color, religion, sexual orientation, gender, gender identity or expression, disability, age, and country of ancestral origin for comparable work. A differential wage is permissible where one or more of the following factors is found to apply:

- "A seniority system; provided, however, that time spent on leave due to a pregnancy related condition or parental, family and medical leave shall not reduce seniority."
- "A merit system."
- "A system that measures earnings by quantity or quality of production."
- "Geographic location when the locations correspond with different costs of living, provided, that no location within the state of Rhode Island will be considered to have a sufficiently different cost of living."
- "Reasonable shift differential, which is not based upon or derived from a differential in compensation based on [a protected] characteristic[...]"
- "Education, training, or experience to the extent such factors are job-related and consistent with a business necessity."
- "Work-related travel, if the travel is regular and a business necessity."
- "A bona fide factor other than [a protected] characteristic[...], which is not based upon or derived from a differential in compensation based on [a protected] characteristic[...], which is job-related with respect to the position in question; and which is consistent with business necessity."

Employer Wage Inquiry

- Pursuant to Rhode Island General Law § 28-6-22, employers are prohibited from inquiring into or requiring the disclosure of a job applicant's wage history, from relying upon a job applicant's wage history when considering the individual's candidacy, and from setting a minimum or maximum threshold of prior wage earnings as a condition of employment.
- An employer may, for the limited purpose of "support[ing] a wage higher than the wage [initially] offered by the employer," consider and seek to confirm a job applicant's wage history if such wage history was voluntarily provided.
- At the time of hire or internal transfer to a new position, and whenever requested by an employee, an employer must disclose to the hired, transferred, or inquiring individual, the wage range for the position the individual's position.

Wage Discussion among Employees

Pursuant to Rhode Island General Law § 28-6-18, it is unlawful for an employer to prohibit employees from discussing wages or asking other employees about their wages. Employers may not request or require that employees or applicants waive the right to discuss wages.

Retaliation Prohibited

Any discriminatory or disciplinary action taken against an employee for exercising these rights under the Act, or for opposing any practice made unlawful by the Act, is prohibited.

RI General Laws § 28-6-18 states that this notice must be posted and maintained in conspicuous places where workers are employed. Fines may be imposed for noncompliance.
